From Mrs Ronnfeldt’s Desk
We are already at the end of Week 4 and what an exhaustingly hot week this has been! School photos were held in the Library this year to avoid the heat, flies and wind! Huge thank you to Bec C, Carolyn and Bronnie for helping with uniforms, hair and socks!
We had the Lions Club representative come and judge our entries in the Lions International Peace Poster Contest which encourages children aged 11-13 to express what peace means to them. They also judge our younger student’s work and give encouragement awards. They will hold a BBQ and presentation on 14th Nov starting at 10:30am – all welcome.
Today we joined with schools across Australia to sing the Music: Count Us In song ‘Paint You a Song’. An initiative of the Music Council of Australia, it lifts the profile of music in schools and encourages participation. Decades of research shows that learning music can help students’ self-confidence, self-discipline and team work.
Here’s hoping for a cooler week!
Warm regards
Tracy Ronnfeldt

Yrs 3-6 had a video conference on persuasive writing this week. They worked with the book ‘The Day the Crayons Quit’ which is a great story about Duncan’s crayons and the letters they write to him. We have been working on tasks related to the book. Here is a short drama written by Eric and Mav.

THE CRAYON WARS

Characters:
- Blue crayon: Brien
- Red crayon: Raymond
- White crayon: Whyatt

Script:

Brien: You guys should be jealous - I’m used more than you guys!
Raymond: Well I’m used just as much as you.
Whyatt: You guys are so lucky I’m only used to colour in snow and white bunnies.

Brien/Raymond: Ha ha ha ha!

Narrator: Duncan uses Whyatt to colour in Santas, white snow, teeth and wrapping paper. Now Brien and Raymond are jealous.

Brien/Raymond: Let’s go and rip Whyatt’s crayon paper off so he is naked!

Narrator: Before Brien and Raymond could do this, Whyatt stuck their tiny feet to the floor so they couldn’t move.

Whyatt: And who’s laughing now?!

The End
