From Mrs Ronnfeldt’s Desk

Well here we are – the last Croppatopic for 2014! What a year it has been – so full of wonderful learning opportunities, new ideas and shared friendships. School days really are some of the best days of our lives! Presentation Night is fast approaching and students have been busily rehearsing as well as continuing with class work. There is no homework this week but they need to be learning their lines for the play. See Mrs Forsyth if you have any questions regarding lines or costumes. We will send short sleeve formal uniforms home with students Monday – boys to wear shorts, white socks and black shoes – girls will have skirts, white socks and black shoes.

Notes are out for our break up on Wednesday and we already have several returned – see the website for a copy of the note if you need another. We are very excited!

Let me take this opportunity to sincerely thank our P&C and all the volunteers who have given their time, talents and energy to making a difference for our students at Croppa Creek. Your efforts have not gone unnoticed and you are very much appreciated.

Warm regards
Tracy Ronnfeldt
