From the Principal’s Desk

Well done to those students who presented items this morning on assembly – a great report from Ethan (who also impressed Ms Langdon when she visited on Monday) and such melodious tones from our wonderful trio on recorder!

Our students are enjoying the Macintyre Young Writer’s camp with Mrs Forsyth: ‘Somerset Celebration of Literature’ at Mudgeeraba. It was a privilege to have our Yr 6 students invited to participate in these workshops with published authors.

We will celebrate Harmony Day tomorrow Friday 21st – a day of cultural respect for everyone who calls Australia home. We will be celebrating with food from different nations and cooking fried rice and nachos and we’ve had an offer of shepherd’s pie and spaghetti bolognaise – please come and join us (bring a plate if you can) at 1pm for lunch.

Found this inspirational quote from Helen Keller on a milk carton! “When we do the best we can, we never know what miracle is wrought in our life or in the life of another.”

Warm regards
Tracy Ronnfeldt

Live Well Weekly Tip

Stuck for healthy snack ideas? Why not try some of the following!

- Fresh fruit such as apples, grapes, strawberries, mandarins, pears, plums, apricots, bananas, kiwi fruit, nectarines and oranges
- Carrot, zucchini or celery sticks combined with healthy dips e.g. hommus or mashed avocado (crunchy vegetables can be softened by steaming for very young children)
- Tinned fruit in natural juice or preserved fresh chopped fruit with a generous squeeze of lemon juice and 2 tablespoons of fruit juice
- Small quantities of dried fruit (e.g. sultanas, dried apples, dried apricots)
- Trail mixes of dried fruit with a plain cereal (e.g. mini wheats, rice puffs)

We have beautiful free range eggs for sale - raising money for our excursion - only $3 a dozen (if you have any spare egg cartons we would love them too)
