At the time of writing I am up at the Somerset Writers Festival with Billy and Eric and we have already participated in some fantastic workshops. The authors have been fantastic and are very approachable. I must acknowledge the wonderful support of McIntyre Young Writers and Mrs Forsyth in organising this fantastic opportunity for our students.

On Tuesday night the P&C AGM was held. It was the first one that I have been to where every position was filled on the night, this is a wonderful reflection of the community. Thank you to those who took on various roles and responsibilities and I look forward to working closely with you throughout the year I would also like to acknowledge all the hard work of the 2014 P&C committee, they have created a wonderful foundation for the community to build on.

We will be attending North Star P.S. this Friday for sport as it is the last opportunity before the term is over due to the Wallangra Workshop the following week and Good Friday after that. The children have thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity and I would like to thank North Star P.S for welcoming us.

I am sure you do not need reminding that the Crows Gala day is on this Saturday. From what I have heard it is a great day and I am very much looking forward to it. The P&C have done a wonderful job in organising the bbq along with other activities and any support is welcome.

Sounding out aloud
Making phonics fun. Help your child learn to read by sounding out their words. Here are some tips to help your child gain confidence reading.

Principal

Billy and Eric enjoy some hands-on writing experience. Mr Jackman said, “Truly a wonderful, engaging and professionally run camp”.
P & C News

All hands on deck for the Rugby Gala Day this Saturday. The P&C are asking for donations of cakes and slices for their morning tea stall on Saturday. You can bring them down on the morning or drop them at school to Karen on Friday afternoon.

Mike and Angela Mitchell are setting up morning tea and BBQ. With other members to be rostered on through out the day.

Karen and Bec Mclean are setting up crazy hair, lucky dips and footy passing comp.

With Renee and Aaron to help out with this stall.

Contact Bronnie about the rostered times.
